Vorwort

Der Tango, Ende des neunzehnten Jahrhunderts in den Immigrantenkreisen von Buenos Aires und Montevideo entstanden, trat 1910 von Paris aus seinen Siegeszug durch Europa bis nach Finnland und Japan an. Seither hat sich der Tango zu einer unverwechselbaren, vielschichtigen Kunstform entwickelt und ist in allen Konzertsälen der Welt zu Hause. Deshalb ist es uns ein Anliegen, diese Musik, die auf unzähligen Tonträgern ein ständig wachsendes Publikum erreicht, durch gedruckte Partituren interessierten Musikern und Ensembles zugänglich zu machen.

Knapp hundert Jahre nach Entstehung dieses von Leidenschaft und Melancholie geprägten Musik- und Tanzstils, gelang es Astor Piazzolla, mit seinem „Tango Nuevo“, auch die Hochburgen der klassischen Musik zu erobern und Klassikstars wie Gidon Kremer, Yoyo Ma und Daniel Barenboim für sein Werk zu begeistern.

Wir freuen uns, in unserer TANGO EDITION eine repräsentative Auswahl seines umfangreichen Oeuvres anbieten zu können.

Wir möchten aber auch seinen musikalischen Erben ein Forum sein: der Cellist José Bragato war langjähriger Mitarbeiter Astor Piazzollas und spielte in vielen seiner Ensembles. Bragato entwickelte dennoch einen eigenen Kompositionsstil und hat in einigen seiner mitreißenden Werke auch Elemente der argentinischen Folklore verarbeitet.

Einflüsse der uruguayischen Folklore und des Candombe, reiches musikalisches Erbe der schwarzen Sklaven, finden sich in den Kompositionen von Luis Di Matteo, einem Bandoneonisten aus Montevideo.

Das Schaffen des argentinischen Bandoneonisten Rodolfo Mederos, der mit so unterschiedlichen Musikern wie Astor Piazzolla, Mercedes Sosa, Daniel Barenboim und dem argentinischen Rockstar Spinetta auf der Bühne stand, ist von nie versiegender musikalischer Neugier geprägt.

Seine Vielseitigkeit und seine Ausdruckskraft charakterisieren auch die acht Werke seines Albums „Eterno Buenos Aires“, die wir in unserem Katalog führen.

Gustavo Beytelmann lebt seit über dreißig Jahren in Paris und war in den 1980er Jahren treibende Kraft des europäischen Tango-Revivals. Seine Kompositionen, eine spannende Mischung aus Tango, Jazz und zeitgenössischer Musik, sind für die europäische Tango-Avantgarde richtungsweisend.

Während Raúl Garelo und Miguel Ángel Varvello mit ihren Werken einen wichtigen Beitrag zum Repertoire für Solo-Bandoneon und Orchester leisten, sind Saúl Cosentinos Solo-Klavierwerke musikalische Kostbarkeiten für alle Pianisten, die sich für diesen Musikstil interessieren.

Luis Bordas swingende Gitarrenkompositionen stehen für eine moderne Lesart dieses traditionell so wichtigen Repertoires.

Javier González liegt die „Tango Cancion“ am Herzen. Seine Umsetzung von zeitgenössischer Poesie in Musik ist ein Versuch, dank aktueller Inhalte auch ein junges Publikum für das Tangolied zu begeistern.

Endlich sind auch zwei Pianisten in unserem Katalog vertreten, die ebenfalls Tangogeschichte geschrieben haben: Osvaldo Requena hat mit seinem Schaffen die Entwicklung dieses Musikstils seit der „epoca de oro“, dem goldenen Zeitalter des Tango, wesentlich beeinflusst und feiert mit seiner Show „Tango-Sessions“ in über fünfzig Ländern rauschende Erfolge.

Als Astor Piazzolla mit seinem „Quinteto Nuevo Tango“ der Durchbruch gelang und er damit weltweit Begeisterungstürme entfachte, saß am Klavier ein junger Musiker namens Pablo Ziegler. Zehn Jahre lang, bis zu Piazzollas Erkrankung und Tod, drückten Zieglers jazzige Improvisationssoli diesem Ensemble seinen Stempel auf. Seither hat Ziegler die Handschrift des Maestros weiterentwickelt und einen eigenen unverwechselbaren Stil gefunden.

Auf diese Weise wird unsere TANGO EDITION der überwältigenden musikalischen Vielfalt gerecht, wie sie von der heutigen Tango-Avantgarde geboten wird. Wir freuen uns, Ihnen in unserem aktuellen Katalog die neuesten Entwicklungen dieser faszinierenden Musik vorzustellen, die längst zum festen Bestandteil des weltweiten Kulturerbes geworden ist.

Foreword

The tango, which originated at the end of the nineteenth century in the immigration circles of Buenos Aires and Montevideo, began in 1910 in Paris its victory march across Europe as far as Finland and even Japan. Since this time the tango has developed into an unmistakable, complex art form that is at home in all concert halls throughout the world. It is therefore important that this music, which is reaching an ever-increasing audience thanks to innumerable recordings on various sound carriers, should be made available to interested musicians and musical ensembles in the form of printed scores.

Almost one hundred years after the origins of this style of music characterised by passion and melancholia, Astor Piazzolla, with the help of his “Tango Nuevo”, succeeded in also conquering the bastions of classical music and in gaining the enthusiasm of classic stars such as Gidon Kremer, Yoyo Ma and Daniel Barenboim for his work.

We are pleased to be able to offer a representative selection of his wide-ranging oeuvres in our TANGO EDITION.

We would wish, however, to be a forum for his musical heirs: the Cellist José Bragato was for many years a colleague of Astor Piazzolla and played in many of his ensembles. Bragato nevertheless developed a style of composition of his very own and has woven into a number of his enchanting works elements of Argentine folklore.

The influences of Uruguayan folklore and the Candombe, the rich musical inheritance of the Negro slaves are to be found in the compositions of Luis Di Matteo, a bandoneon player from Montevideo.

The musical creations of the Argentine bandoneon player Rodolfo Mederos, who has appeared on stage with such widely different musicians as Astor Piazzolla, Mercedes Sosa, Daniel Barenboim and the Argentine rock star Spinetta, is characterised by a never-ending stream of musical curiosity. His versatility and strength of expression also characterise the eight compositions to be found on his album „Eterno Buenos Aires“ that we include in our catalogue.

Gustavo Beytelmann has been living in Paris for more than thirty years and during the 1980s was the driving force behind the European Tango revival. His compositions, an exciting mixture of tango, jazz and contemporary music, point the way for the European Tango avant-garde. Whilst Raúl Garelo and Miguel Ángel Varvello make an important contribution with their works to the musical repertoire for solo bandoneon and orchestra, the solo piano compositions of Saúl Cosentino are musical treasures for all pianists who are interested in this style of music. The swinging guitar compositions of Luis Borda stand for a modern interpretation of this traditionally so important repertoire.

Javier González has given his heart to the “Tango Cancion”. His transposition of contemporary music into poetry is an attempt to engage the enthusiasm of a young audience for the tango lied. At long last two pianists are also featured in our catalogue who have in their turn contributed to the history of tango: with his creative works Osvaldo Requena has had a decisive influence upon the development of this style of music since the “epoca de oro”, the Golden Age of the Tango, and is currently celebrating in more than fifty countries resounding successes with his show “Tango Sessions”. When Astor Piazzolla made his breakthrough with his “Quinteto Nuevo Tango” and thus unleashed storms of enthusiasm world-wide, a young musician called Pablo Ziegler was playing the piano. For ten years, until Piazzolla’s illness and death, Ziegler’s solo jazz improvisations were a hallmark of this ensemble. Since then, Ziegler has further developed the maestro’s hand and found his own, unmistakable style.

In this way our TANGO EDITION does justice to the overwhelming musical variety that is offered by today’s Tango avant-garde. We are proud to present to you in our current catalogue the latest developments within this fascinating musical genre, which has long since become a firm component of the world-wide cultural heritage.
